Begin in Southampton and cruise to northeast England’s hypnotic cultural hub, Newcastle, mixing sophisticated galleries and restaurants with timeless Victorian structures. Marvel at the graceful 18th-century architecture on display in Edinburgh’s Georgian New Town or behold its imposing 12th-century castle. Cruise to Britain’s former industrial powerhouse, Glasgow, famed for its vibrant cultural and gastronomic scene, and on to western England, where Liverpool beckons with premier art galleries and a striking avant-garde cathedral. Continue to the Emerald Isle, first stopping in Dublin, rich with legendary sites including Trinity College and St. Patrick’s Cathedral, followed by Cork, a lively university town home to the French-Gothic St. Finbarre’s Cathedral. Before returning to Southampton, stroll along Plymouth’s sparkling historic waterfront, or take in beautiful views from its iconic lighthouse.
