Crossroads of Civilizations

The turquoise waters and emerald coasts of the French and Italian Rivieras have long enticed the Greeks, Etruscans, Phoenicians, Romans and Germanic peoples. The beau monde began flocking to the seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in the salubrious climate. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco—further influenced the development of these coastal gems nestled between the Alps and the sea. The Côte d’Azur’s radiant quality of light captivated Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist’s use of brilliant colors, while the glamour of the region attracted great writers like F. Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway.

Rome, Italy
Once the center of a vast empire, today this UNESCO World Heritage site is the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome continue to astonish visitors.

Costa Smeralda, Sardinia
Sardinia’s Costa Smeralda (Emerald Coast) features remote seaside villages, elegant villas, a rugged landscape rising from exquisite white sand beaches and azure waters plied by sleek luxury yachts. Anchor at Golfo Aranci near Porto Cervo, a haven for celebrities.

The optional tour takes you to the well-preserved granite Nuraghe Albucciu, one of the Bronze-Age fortresses unique to Sardinia.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France
Dock in the ancient town of Bonifacio, overlooking the sparkling harbor from sheer white limestone cliffs at the southern tip of the island of Corsica.

Often referenced by historians as a site in Homer’s Odyssey, this beautiful port’s fundamentally French character bears a strong Italian imprint, manifested in the islanders’ French-Italian dialect.

Transfer by small train for the optional excursion featuring a walk through the incredibly picturesque medieval citadel and Old Town. Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empereurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic Church of St-Dominique and the famous Grain de Sable limestone formation.

Cinque Terre

From Porto Venere’s small harbor, board a private boat cruise and dock in the villages of the Cinque Terre. This UNESCO World Heritage site is a series of five fishing villages with lovely pastel homes clinging to remote cliffs that jut into the Ligurian Sea. Discover the spectacular nuances of the towns of Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by walking paths that offer marvelous views of the charming coves, hidden beaches and terraced vineyards that produce the famous dessert wine Sciacchetrà.

Portofino

Portofino is the perfect village for a leisurely afternoon on the Italian Riviera. Visit the 17th-century San Giorgio Church, home to the relics of this dragon-slaying saint; stroll the pedestrian-only streets; or sip a cappuccino in an outdoor café.

Monte Carlo, Monaco

The principality of Monaco’s dazzling historic district, Monte Carlo offers an intoxicating mixture of princely sights and intrigue and is famous for its Grand Casino. Admire the legendary belle-époque architecture and enjoy a walking tour on the historic Rock of Monaco. See the changing of the guards at the Prince’s Palace, home of Europe’s longest-reigning dynasty, and the neo-Romanesque Cathedral of St. Nicholas, where Princess Grace is interred.

Nice, France

One of the oldest human settlements in the world, with archaeological sites dating to the Lower Paleolithic period, Nice remains rich in its traditions and a promenade for pedestrians, and its elaborate 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is still an important symbol of the city.

Florence, Italy

Enjoy the rolling Tuscan landscape of vineyards and cypresses en route to Florence, birthplace of the Renaissance. This iconic UNESCO World Heritage site is a treasure trove of unparalleled achievements in art, architecture and literature. Admire Brunelleschi’s soaring dome; Ghiberti’s moving “Doors of Paradise,” depicting scenes from the Old Testament in cast bronze; and Michelangelo’s David, considered one of his crowning achievements.

Pisa/Lucca

The beautifully preserved medieval cities of Lucca and Pisa are a short, scenic drive from the port city of Livorno. Pisa’s famous Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcases the legendary Leaning Tower, the impressive 11th-century Duomo and the largest baptistery in Italy. Lucca’s intact Renaissance city walls are now a promenade for pedestrians, and its elaborate 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is still an important symbol of the city.

Picturesque at any angle, Italy’s colorful Cinque Terre is a lovely sight from the sea, while each of its five terraced villages offers breathtaking views of the Ligurian coastline from the shore. centuries-old culture. This capital of the Côte d'Azur is bursting with the colors that inspired Chagall and Matisse: the azure waters of the Mediterranean, terra cotta roofs, ocher and yellow houses, emerald green gardens, budding flower markets and marbled tile squares of Baroque and French theaters. Enjoy a walking tour of Vieux Nice (old town) and a stroll through the vibrant outdoor flower market. Visit the Musée Marc-Chagall, home to the largest collection of the artist's works, including the 17-canvas Biblical Message.

Cannes
Settled as a fishing village by monks, Cannes today is the quintessence of dazzling Riviera allure and host of its renowned international film festival. On an optional excursion, see the picturesque, palm-lined La Croisette promenade; admire the medieval lanes, churches and castle of Le Suquet on a walking tour of Cannes’ old quarter; and see the world-famous Film Festival Palace.

Carcassonne
Settled on the frontier between France and Spain along ancient trade routes linking the Atlantic with the Mediterranean and Iberian Peninsula, the medieval core of Carcassonne is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Occupied since the sixth century B.C., it was fortified by the Romans, conquered by the Visigoths in the fifth century, overrun by Persians in the seventh century and invaded by Franks and hordes of Barbarians. Each of these civilizations left their indelible influence on the extraordinary architectural and artistic heritage of the city over the centuries. Walk the cobblestone streets, visit the Musée des Beaux Arts, admire the drawbridges and watchtowers of Carcassonne and enjoy the joyous ringing of bells that evoke its Gothic and medieval past. Travel to the nearby Corbières Mountains to tour the well-preserved, 12th-century Cistercian Abbey of Fontfroide.

Barcelona, Spain
The lively and beautiful quarters of Barcelona are filled with Europe’s greatest concentration of Gothic architecture and the artistic treasures of Dali, Gaudí and Picasso.
