 - You will not be eligible for in-state tuition, but you can receive additional scholarship awards!

- My grandparents live in MS or my family owns land in MS. Can I be considered in-state?
 - No, your residency is determined by where your parents live, pay taxes, own property; lease an apartment/house, etc.

- Do I have to live on campus during my freshman year?
 - Yes, you are required to live on campus and have a meal plan your freshman year.
 - Housing is based on the date you apply to MSU for admission (www.housing.msstate.edu).

- How is my housing assignment made?
 - When you apply to MSU, you reserve your housing priority. This is your spot in line to choose your residence hall later. I encourage you to apply early! Housing is determined by your admissions application date NOT your housing application date.
 - You will be able to complete the housing application once you are admitted. It is not due until April 1 to keep your housing priority.
 - You can mutually request a friend for a roommate, or you can use the Housing Profile to find a compatible roommate.

- If I have AP credits, can I receive college credit?
 - Yes, if you will visit www.catalog.msstate.edu, you can see the score required for each AP test to receive college credit. You can also view the class you will receive credit for and how many hours.

- I am taking dual enrollment courses. Can I receive credit?
 - Yes, if it's from an accredited institution, you can receive credit. You can just send us the transcript when you complete the classes. The transcript needs to come from the institution in which you completed the coursework.

- Do you have an Honors program?
 - Yes, we have a great Honor College with lots of opportunities. Study abroad, research, living learning community.
 - Honors automatically invites any student with the following credentials to join without them having to apply:
 - 3.75+ GPA
 - 30+ ACT or 1360+ SAT
 - Otherwise, it is a separate application. www.honors.msstate.edu

- I want to play football/basketball/baseball/insert sport here. Can you tell me how to get a scholarship/talk to coaches?
 - That's great! Unfortunately, I cannot talk to you about Athletic Recruiting under NCAA recruiting regulations. The best thing to do is have your coach contact our coaches or visit www.hailstate.com.

- What makes MSU different from every other college here?
 - Tell them about your experience, what you love about MSU

- What do students do in Starkville on weekends?
