Dear Mississippi State Alumni & Friends,

Immerse yourself with unique and captivating experiences, each contributing to the cultural tapestry and natural beauty of the Great Lakes region. Whether you're seeking the charm of a car-free island, the opulence of a historic hotel, the grandeur of a natural wonder, or a deep dive into American history and innovation, this tour has something to offer every traveler. Begin your journey with visits to the River Rouge Plant, the Henry Ford Museum & Greenfield Village, all located in Dearborn, Michigan. The River Rouge Plant is an industrial landmark and was once the largest integrated factory complex in the world. It played a significant role in the American automotive industry's history. The Henry Ford Museum is a captivating attraction that celebrates American innovation and history with an extensive collection of historic artifacts, including automobiles, aviation exhibits, presidential limousines, and much more.

The following days will be highlights as we explore the Jewel of Michigan, Mackinac Island, for a two-night stay at the Grand Hotel. This historic hotel opened in 1887. It is renowned for its world-class service, exquisite architecture, and breathtaking views of the Straits of Mackinac along its iconic front porch, all while offering a glimpse into a bygone era. Explore the island on a horse-drawn carriage tour to see stunning natural beauty, rugged cliffs, views of the Great Lakes, and Victorian architecture. A free afternoon allows time to sample fudge and browse the shops along Main Street. Sightseeing of Michigan continues as you cross the Mighty Mac suspension bridge and travel to the charming town of Frankenmuth. Here you'll find a city with old-world charm known as "Michigan's Little Bavaria." Stroll the quaint streets with half-timbered buildings and savor delicious German cuisine. Shop for unique gifts and souvenirs and experience the world's largest Christmas store at Bronner's Christmas Wonderland.

Finish this vacation with two nights in Niagara Falls, Canada, where you'll see and tour the awe-inspiring, massive waterfalls on the Niagara River. Explore the quaint town of Niagara-on-the-lake and experience the falls up close on a Niagara Falls Cruise. Learn about the natural wonders of the area with a unique experience descending 125 below the falls at the Journey Behind the Falls then feel the power the mighty rapids of the Niagara River at White Water Walk. The final evening features a Farewell Dinner at the top of Skylon Tower in the revolving restaurant overlooking the falls.
